

WANT A GOVERNOR WHO HELPS WORKING PEOPLE?

“When General Electric chose to attack our union by transferring work from our facility to a non-union facility in a Right-to-Work state it was Governor Tom Wolf who reached out to us and offered up the full support of his administration to assist our displaced members through some difficult times.”

—UE Local 506 Vice President Tom Bobrowicz

OR ONE WHO HATES UNIONS?

Wolf’s opponent Scott Wagner is viciously anti-union, comparing unions to Hitler.

As a state senator, his political shenanigans resulted in shutting down the state’s unemployment system at the end of 2016, resulting in tens of thousands of Pennsylvanians — including many UE members — having their benefits cut off during the holidays.

Most recently, he made violent threats against his opponent, saying “I’m gonna stomp all over your face with golf spikes.”
